

Notice to Victims - Supplemental Form for Local Resources

*The information below is meant to help connect you with resources in your area.
Urgent law enforcement and medical support should be reached by calling 9-1-1.*

Local Resources

Local Family Violence and/or Sexual Assault Center - 24/7 Resources and Support

Your local family violence and sexual assault centers provide services to survivors of family violence and sexual assault and their families, such as shelter, counseling, safety planning, and support. Contact your local centers by calling their 24-hour hotline.

Name of Family Violence Center:

24-Hour Hotline:

Website:

Name of Sexual Assault Center:

24-Hour Hotline:

Website:

Local Prosecutor's Office

You have the right to contact your local prosecutor's office and to receive certain information, such as details about court proceedings, to submit a victim impact statement, and other rights you are provided as a survivor. Contact your local prosecutor's office by reaching out to their Victim Assistance Coordinator.

Office:

Office Number:

Victim Assistance Coordinator Number:

Website:

Local Law Enforcement Agency

You have the right to contact your local law enforcement agency and to receive certain information, such as the defendant's right to bail and procedures in criminal investigations and other rights you are provided as a survivor.

Agency:

Crime Victim Liaison Number:

Website:

Legal Aid

Legal aid programs may be able to help with a variety of legal issues, such as divorce and child custody. Information about your local legal aid organization is listed below.

Legal Aid Program:

Phone Number:

Website:

For more information about available resources, such as food pantries or affordable housing, you can call 2-1-1.